A woman in a blue shirt is selecting from several small, dark glass bottles of essential oils on a light-colored table. The bottles have different colored caps (orange, green, blue). To her left, another person's hands are visible, wearing a silver watch and a ring. In the background, a black and white polka-dot case holds more essential oil bottles. Two white cups of coffee with latte art are on the table. The text "I create massive value" is overlaid on the right side of the image.
